Decision on the preliminary programme 2023

As all the ErUM-Data events were extremely successful, we aim at a new round of both proven and new workshops and courses. Time constraints owing to university semesters and DPG conferences are on page 2 below.

New are the workshops on “Next Generation Environment for Interoperable Data Analysis” (preparation by UI is advanced) and the “Sustainability in the Digital Transformation” which requires preparations well ahead.

Meinerzhagen is currently the only site with suitable conditions for our several-day events: here pre-reservations have been made for the deep learning schools and the sustainability workshop.

Short expert workshops will be offered for the ErUM-Data principle investigators “Software and Algorithms” independently of being funded or not. Furthermore, a follow-up workshop NFDI – ErUM-Data 24-Oct-22 is envisioned already now. Finally, together with the LHC- an BelleII-Büros we will present ErUM-Data at the Hannover Messe. Further events can be added as necessary.

The program 2023 will be announced in a timely manner such that all events can be announced at www.erumdatahub.de, and on a poster prepared for the Frankfurt Meeting 24-Oct-22.

Preparations for the NFDI – ErUM-Data Meeting, Frankfurt 24-Oct-22

This meeting will connect to the previous meeting (5-April-22), and is intended to put the scope on work that has been achieved so far. The indico page <https://indico.desy.de/event/36243> is open for registrations and has been filled with a first program that will be adapted in the next days. The program should include also work within the DIG-UM topic groups, and discussions for understanding what will be solved by NFDI and what is special to ErUM-Data. This discussion is important by itself, and will be leading our needs in a future ErUM-Data BMBF call.
